

Send Love to Japan

Photo by Dave Ward Photography

You can give them hope in their darkest hours...

The 11 March 2011 Tohoku Earthquake and Tsunami disaster has taken many lives, and affected millions of Japanese people.

To the Japanese, a paper crane represents hope for peace, and to be courageous in times of struggle.

Drop by our booth on 17 & 18 March 2011 (Thurs/Fri) from 9am to 6pm at Central Library Benches 4 & 5 (near staircase to YIH) to help us fold at least 1000 paper cranes with penned messages of hope and encouragement.

You may also drop your donations at our booth or in our mobile boxes, which will be given to the Japanese Association of Singapore.

Your contributions will go a long way.

Have questions? Email us: nuslovetojapan@gmail.com

Organised by the Department of Japanese Studies