
Centre for Language Studies
National University of Singapore

The National University of Singapore (NUS) invites applications for the following position in the Centre for Language Studies starting with the coming semester (August 2008 – November 2008):

Part-time Tutor for German Language

The Centre, a centre under the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, teaches eleven languages, including German, mainly to undergraduate students at elementary, intermediate and advanced levels.

Applicants for the position should have a relevant university degree, preferably with some teaching experience. Appointments are renewable every semester subject to mutual agreement.

Remuneration will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Applicants may contact the Centre if they have any enquiries.

Those interested in the position should send a cover letter with a CV and copies of educational certificates to:
