Getting to the Conference

By NUS Internal Shuttle Bus

Internal shuttle buses stop near AS7 on the A, B, and D1 routes. The buses are free for all students and visitors on campus; no identification required. Shuttles run about every 5-10 minutes on weekdays and every 20-30 minutes on Saturdays. Alight at the bus stop called “Central Library”.

By MRT (Subway/train)

For those traveling from off campus to the conference, you may take the Circle Line (yellow) and alight at Kent Ridge Station. Exit the station, and continue straight up the ramp to the bus stop (do not cross under the road). Take internal shuttle A1 to the bus stop called “Central Library”.

By Taxi

Public Bus

NUS is also served by a number of buses: 10, 33, 95, 96, 151 & 200. Several online tools can make finding the right bus easier, including the website (gothere.sg), and the following smartphone app for iPhone and Android: “SG Buses”.
