

Workshop on Singaporean Students of Korean as a Foreign Language and Suitable Teaching Methodologies

- Instructional Leadership Program for Korean as a Foreign Language (ILP-KFL), Seoul National University -

1. Visit by ILP-KFL, SNU

Professor Yoon Hiwon, the Director of the ILP-KFL, Seoul National University, visited the Centre for Language Studies with student teachers enrolled in the ILP-KFL on 24 April 08. They had a workshop about teaching of Korean and teaching methodologies.

The Director of the Centre for Language Studies, Associate Professor Chan Wai Meng, welcomed Professor Yoon. They had a meeting to exchange ideas about both institutions' programmes as well as future bilateral interactions between CLS and Seoul National University.

2. About the Workshop

1) Title: Singaporean Students of Korean as a Foreign Language and Suitable Teaching Methodologies

2) Schedule & Activities

10: 00 - 10: 25 Korean language programme at CLS

10: 25 - 10: 50 Korean language programmes in Singapore

10: 50 - 11: 20 Q & A about teaching Korean language in Singapore

11: 30 - 12: 10 Workshop session 1: Demonstration of class for beginners

Comments and discussion

12: 20 - 14: 30 Lunch

14: 30- 15: 30 Workshop session 2: Demonstration of class for intermediate learners

Comments and discussion

15: 30 -15: 40 Group photo

3) Participants

The participants, who are keen to teach Korean language and culture to foreigners, have been taking courses such as Korean Grammar, Teaching Methodology, Lesson Design and Planning etc. as part of their 1 year Diploma course at SNU.

3. Photos

Meeting between Directors of the & ILP-KFL

Presentation on the Korean Language Programme, CLS

Workshop with demo lesson for teaching Korean to Singaporean students

Group photo taken at the end of the workshop