

Five CLS students awarded Japanese Government Scholarship for language training in Osaka, Japan

The Japanese Government launched full scholarships for university students studying the Japanese language in East Asian countries including Singapore, Philippines, Thailand and India in 2008. The scholarships are funded by the Japan-ASEAN Integration Fund as part of the Japan-East Asia Network of Exchange of Students and Youths (JENESYS) Programme. This is the second year that the Centre for Language Studies sent five students to Japan on these scholarships to attend a summer course at Japan Foundation Japanese Institute, Kansai from 10 June to 22 July 2009. The five selected students were:

Chan Weihan (FASS)
Koh Hannah (FASS)
Sng Sin Pei (FASS)
Quah Geok Lan (Science)
Quek Meizhen Teresa (Science)
