Information for students who took the Placement Test:

1. If you have passed the placement test, a waiver will be given to you on Thursday 6th August 2015 at 16:00 hrs. Please do not bid for the module any earlier.

2. The result for this test is valid for 2 semesters. If you plan to take the module after the lapse of the waiver please re-take the placement test.

3. If you are recommended to a higher level module, please check if the module is offered in that semester or wait for subsequent semester when the module is offered.

4. If you fail this test you are not allowed to bid for LAK1201 (unless approved) as this module is for complete beginners. If you are keen to take a Korean module, you may want to further your knowledge and re-sit for the placement test in the next semester.

5. Non-Graduating students please submit your request via online for the module allowed.

6. Post-Grad students please submit for the module allowed through the CAP form available from your faculty. Form must be endorsed by Head of department and Supervisor with department stamp.

7. For Yale-NUS students, if you have passed the test we will pre-allocate the module for. You do not need to bid for the module. However please do keep the staff at Yale-NUS informed of any change of module.

8. If you are not successful in bidding for a module, please send an appeal through CORS after bidding closes on 12 August 2015. We will look into all appeals and subject to vacancy we will offer you the module. Please do not email your appeal.
