CLS Language Certificates of Proficiency

The Centre awards Certificates of Proficiency at the Elementary, Intermediate and Advanced Levels. Eligible are NUS and exchange students who have successfully completed the qualifying CLS modules (i.e. the highest module listed for each of the three levels) in the table below. The qualifying modules must be read in the CLS.

With effect from AY2012-2013, students must have a minimum grade of "C" or "Satisfactory" to qualify for the certificates.

Request for certificate

Your lecturers will check with you in class during the semester if you wish to have a certificate.

If you are no longer taking any modules with us, you can also contact the respective administrative staff should you wish to request for a certificate. A copy of the result slip or transcript has to be provided to show proof of successful completion of the relevant module(s).

Collection of the certificate

If you are a student currently studying at the NUS, you may collect the certificate when it is ready from Week 4 to 13, on every Tuesday and Wednesday during the semester.

If you are an exchange student or have graduated and unable to collect the certificate from our office, you may request for the certificate to be posted to you. However, you will need to send us a pre-paid self-addressed envelope which should be able to hold an A4 sized paper. Please ensure to have the correct value of the stamp for either local or overseas address. Our postal address is
